

SecureLink Terms & Conditions

- You have received this SecureLink from VidaGift (referred to as "Your Gift Card Seller"). This SecureLink is the means by which you can claim, digitally, the gift card from the selected retailer/brand.
- You must claim your gift card before the SecureLink expiry date displayed. If you do not, you will need to contact Your Gift Card Seller.
- Until you claim a gift card by clicking the SecureLink and following the steps, the retailer/brand has no obligation to provide the gift card to you. Once you claim your gift card, this SecureLink will no longer be valid and no further obligations will be owed to you by Your Gift Card Seller.
- The gift card you claim will be subject to the terms and conditions of the retailer/brand of the gift card (which may include an expiry date for the gift card). These were displayed at the point that the gift card was purchased from Your Gift Card Seller.
- This SecureLink may be cancelled if it is being used fraudulently or is stolen, duplicated or tampered with.

Contact

- If you have any problems using this SecureLink, you should contact Your Gift Card Seller.
- If you have any problems with your gift card (once you have claimed it), you should contact the retailer on the gift card.
